

JOINED UP FOR JOBS
Edinburgh's Jobs Strategy

Joining up in Action: The Development Accords

Dave Anderson
Director of City Development,
The City of Edinburgh Council

The Development Accords

- Construction Academy
- Elements of an Accord
- Examples of Accord agreements
- Delivery Models
- Future Plans

The Construction Academy

- Virtual Organisation
- Employer Led Steering Group
- Four “Pillars”:

Promote the sector and careers within it

Make it easier for people to access jobs

Help people progress within jobs

Co-ordinate stakeholder interest

The Accords: Elements

- Voluntary but effective
- Linking opportunity and need
- Where possible and/or practicable, linked to procurement or funding
- Harnessing the potential of a 25 year pipeline of planned developments

The Current Accords

- Schools PPP
- Waterfront Partnership Accord
- Housing Regeneration Programme
- Tie (Trams for Edinburgh)
- PARC (Craigmillar Regeneration Company)
- St James Quarter and City Centre Partnership

Waterfront Partnership Accord

Agreement to;

- Share and collate information
- Encourage developers and contractors to participate (including clause in sales missives)
- Supply side delivery team
- Action planning process

Housing Regeneration Programme

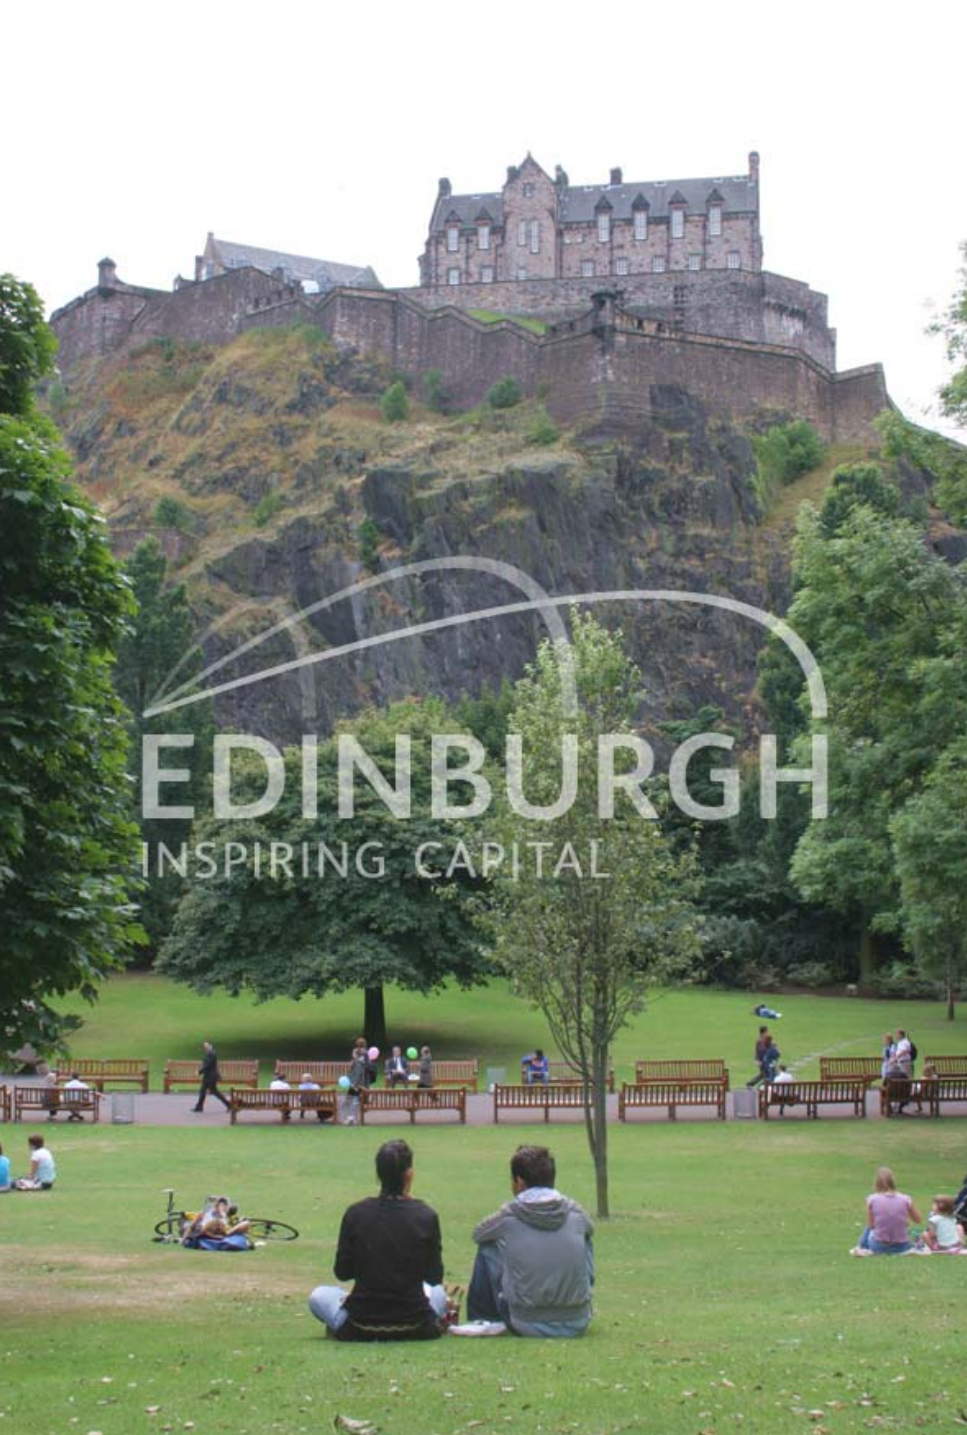

- Protocol agreement between City Development and Housing Service

Delivery Models

- Capital Build
 - Customised training ILM model
- Get ready for Work
 - Pre-apprentice training
- Recruitment Centres (Employment Hubs)
 - Linking opportunities to need, the outward face of the accords

Future Plans

- Creation of additional “Employment Hubs” within development areas as outreach points
- New Partnership Structure between:
 - Construction Academy
 - Telford College

JOINED UP FOR JOBS
Edinburgh's Jobs Strategy

Questions?

Dave Anderson
Director of City Development,
The City of Edinburgh Council